3: GASCo Flight Safety Bulletin

We are reviewing the distribution of this quarterly publication. at present one copy is sent to each club. Can you provide us with a little feedback:

1. How many club members actually read it?
2. How useful is it?
3. Any other comments relating to it?

Please reply to: mark-dale@bhpa.co.uk

4: Examinations - Pilots and Advance Pilot Papers

Please check when returning these exam papers for marking that the Application for P/AP Rating is attached and signed off, either by a CFI/Chief Coach or Senior Coach as required. The exam paper and application form should be mailed to the BHPA office with a £10 fee to avoid a delay in processing.

6: New Memberships

Could all schools please ensure that the information entered onto the Introductory membership books and certificates is accurate and legible, including school name / number.

When payment is made by debit card please ensure that the expiry date and issue number are also included as this saves time in processing the students application.

7: FAI Young Artists Contest 2005

The FAI has pleasure in announcing the 2005 FAI Young Artists Contest, the main purpose of which is to promote interest in air sports in particular and in aviation and space generally. The theme of next year's contest is "More than 100 years of human flight", with the closing date being 1st June 2005. Please contact the BHPA office for further details.
